LAB – 6

These focus on selection (σ), projection (π), and basic operations.

1. List all the names of foods available.
   (Projection on Foods.Name)
2. Find the brands of foods whose price is less than 100.
3. Retrieve all the types of foods liked by pets.
4. Get the last names of all owners.
5. List all the cities where pets live.
6. Retrieve the FoodID and Name of all foods belonging to "Dog Food" type.
7. Find all owners who live in the state 'CA'.
8. List the names of pets along with their type.
9. Retrieve all PetIDs and their PetAgeatOwnership from the Owns table.
10. Find the owners who are older than 40 years.

These focus on joins, unions, intersections, and set differences.

11. Retrieve the names of owners who own pets.
    (Join Owners ⋈ Owns)
12. Find the names of pets along with the last name of their owners.
13. List the owners and their pets who live in the same city.
14. Find all foods purchased by owners along with the month of purchase.
15. Retrieve the Food names purchased for a pet whose type is "Cat".
16. Get the Pet names that like the same TypeofFood they are purchased.
    (Join Likes ⋈ Purchases ⋈ Foods)
17. List the owner names who purchased food in the year 2024.
18. Find the names of pets who have never been purchased any food.
    (Pets – πPetID(Purchases))